

SUMMER BOOK PROJECTS

6TH GRADE:

During the summer, you must read 1 book. You may (of course) read more on the list provided. See below for books and project due the first week back to school. See you in the fall :)

|                                                                                           | Criteria                                                                                           | Book                                                                                                                                                              |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mandatory Book                                                                     | Complete reader's response sheet along with vocab(attached) . Mrs. Thyken has a copy on google classroom. | Ella Enchanted by Gail Carson Levine                                                                                                                              |
| Other options to continue your comprehension and love for reading over the summer! | None!                                                                                              | Confessions of a Closet Catholic, Hoot, Brian's Song, Brian's Winter, Crispin Cross of Lead, Dear Mr. Henshaw, Esperanza Rising, Island of the Blue Dolphins..... |

8th Grade Summer Reading

During the summer, you must read The Wave by Todd Strasser. You may read additional books to continue your love for reading, but I will only expect to see the reader's response form filled out for The Wave only. This is due the first week back to school.

|                       | Criteria                               | Book                  |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Mandatory Book | Complete reader's response sheet attached(on Edmodo) | The Wave by by Todd Strasser |

7th Grade Summer Reading

During the summer, you must read The Pigman by Paul Zindel. You may read additional books to continue your love for reading, but I will only expect to see the reader's response form filled out for The Pigman only. This is due the first week back to school.

|                       | Criteria                          | Book               |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Mandatory Book | Complete the reader's response sheet on Edmodo. | The Pigman by Paul Zindel |